THE GENERAL PRESIDENTS’
PROJECT MAINTENANCE AGREEMENT

A PLAN FOR SUPPLEMENTAL MAINTENANCE

- INDUSTRIAL PLANTS
- ENERGY SYSTEMS
- PETROLEUM & CHEMICAL PLANTS
- GOVERNMENT INSTALLATIONS
HISTORY OF MAINTENANCE BY CONTRACT

The General Presidents' Project Maintenance Agreement (GPPMA) was founded in the year 1956 in keeping with a new concept that industrial plants and other facilities that were built by contractors employing building trades craftsmen could best be maintained by these same craftsmen. Thus, a new challenging industry was born that became known as maintenance by contract. The General Presidents' Agreement has grown tremendously over this period of forty (40) plus years and it now covers several hundred projects in the United States and Canada.

The Agreement is administered by a Committee directly appointed by the General Presidents of fourteen (14) International Unions affiliated with the Building and Construction Trades Department, AFL-CIO, with an Administrator and staff that devotes full time to the activities related to the administration and servicing of the Agreement. We currently have approximately one hundred and seventy two (172) signatory contractors that perform contract maintenance work under the agreement on a regular basis and we have performed more than one billion man hours since the implementation of the first GPPMA.

The GPPMA plan is a cost-effective program set forth in a labor agreement designed for all types of maintenance work including repair, renovation, capital improvement and replacement systems and government installations. The Agreement is designed to reduce labor costs by at least 15-20% since it gives a union contractor the flexibility to manage and perform work operations in the most efficient and productive manner and provides, to the owner, a quality product at reasonable and competitive costs. Listed are some samples of cost-saving items:

- Absolutely no strikes, work stoppages, picketing or slow downs of any type on a GPPMA project
- Standardization of work hours, overtime provisions and Holidays for all crafts
- Provisions for flexibility in starting times and weekly work schedules
- Standardization of multiple shift arrangements and work assignment provisions designed to eliminate disputes involving craft work jurisdiction
- Eliminates ratios of foremen, area foremen and general foremen as established in local or national construction agreements – no mandatory crew size
- Eliminates non-productive time, such as late starts, early quits, organized coffee breaks and excessive clean up time
- No pay for jury duty, funeral leave or pay for time spent on off job activities
• No requirements for wage premiums, travel pay or guaranteed overtime
• No restrictions on the utilization of employees with special skills and qualifications
• No restrictions on the use of equipment or materials
• One jobsite representative with no craft stewards
• No requirements for standby workers or helpers
• Strict enforcement of drug and alcohol programs
• Call by name
• Composite crews

The GPPMA is available to all qualified union contractors who receive a commitment from an owner for contract maintenance work covering an initial period of not less than one (1) year. A separate agreement is issued for each project, except in cases where agreements are granted for multi-plant facilities or systemwide energy projects.
